WELCOME

Welcome! We are excited to bring together colleagues who share a passion for asking important questions, generating new knowledge, and improving healthcare. The Research Workshops and Research Symposium provide a chance to learn from one another, exchange ideas, celebrate accomplishments, and spark new collaborations. Whether you are presenting, attending, or exploring how research can strengthen your work and organization, we hope you leave with new insights, new connections, and renewed inspiration. Thank you for being part of this event and for contributing to a culture of curiosity, discovery, and innovation to help advance research for a healthier future.

WI-FI

The Research Symposium is offering complimentary Wi-Fi to Research Workshop and Research Symposium attendees on October 27 and 28, 2026.

RESEARCH WORKSHOPS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2026 | MCCORMICK PLACE, SOUTH BUILDING, LEVEL 4

MORNING RESEARCH WORKSHOPS | 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

RS-WS1 Care Meets Curiosity: Research Methods Every Nurse Should Know

Katherine A. Hinderer, PhD, RN, CNE, NEA-BC, Connecticut Children's, Institute for Nursing Research and EBP

S403b

This interactive workshop will provide learners with an overview of research methods for nursing research study design. Nurses and nurse leaders who seek to build fundamental skills in nursing research methods are the intended audience for this session. This workshop will provide a comprehensive overview of study design principles that work in clinical and community settings, practical tips for research methods, and application of commonly used research methods to nursing scholarly inquiry. Participants are expected to engage in a variety of activities throughout the session. Learners can expect to immerse themselves in a live study-planning session that can translate to nursing scholarship in their respective clinical settings.

RS-WS2 World Café: Managing Multi-Site Magnet® Research at Scale: Best Practices to Strengthen New Knowledge Development and Infrastructure

Monique Bouvier, PhD, APRN, CPNP-PC, Emory University Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing; Rachelle Lancaster, PhD, RN, Wake Forest University School of Medicine; Deanna Reising, PhD, RN, Indiana University School of Nursing

S405a

This interactive workshop explores best practices for managing multi-site Magnet research at scale, with a focus on strengthening research infrastructure and New Knowledge (NK) development. Using the dynamic World Café format, participants will engage in rotating table discussions to collaboratively examine strategies for building scalable resources and policies that support nurses across all roles in leading and participating in Magnet-aligned research, standardizing NK synopsis selection and documentation, optimizing IRB and regulatory navigation, and planning effective internal and external dissemination of research findings. Attendees will leave equipped with practical tools, synthesized group insights, and actionable plans they can immediately apply to enhance research capacity and scholarly impact in their own organizations.

RS-WS3 From Voice to Value: Measuring the Impact of Professional Governance in Nursing

Lindsey M. Tarasenko, PhD, MSN, BSN, RN, University of Colorado

S405b

This interactive workshop provides Chief Nursing Officers, Chief Nursing Executives, Magnet Program Directors, Nurse Leaders, and Nurse Research Scientists with a comprehensive overview of professional governance in nursing. Participants will examine instruments used to measure professional governance, key psychometric considerations, and strategies for selecting tools that align with organizational goals and resources. Through case based discussion and small group work, attendees will analyze their own professional governance structures, identify strengths and areas of opportunity, develop a tailored measurement plan, and explore practical strategies for governing practice related to decision making, professional obligation, and collateral relationships. The session emphasizes adult learning principles and provides practical strategies participants can immediately apply in their organizations.

AFTERNOON RESEARCH WORKSHOPS | 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

RS-WS4 Innovation and Quality Learning Lab: Anticipating Future Needs in Healthcare

Olivia Lemberger, PhD, RN, NPD-BC, American Nurses Enterprise; Arya Abdool, MBA, American Nurses Enterprise

S403b

Nurse participants will learn about the synergistic components of innovation and quality practices and apply futures thinking to issues that are shaping the nursing profession. Nurses will leave this session with the ability to analyze signals that are influencing the future and think about ways to strategically respond and shape change. These insights will assist nurses in advancing their influence and leadership skills to effectively harness innovation and quality practices while anticipating and responding to the ever-changing healthcare landscape.

RS-WS5 Creating an ROI-Based Case for Sustaining and Scaling Nurse-led EBP and QI Interventions

Olga Yakusheva, PhD, Johns Hopkins School of Nursing; Marianne Weiss, DNSc, RN, Marquette University College of Nursing

S405a

Olga Yakusheva, PhD, and Marianne Weiss, DNSc, RN will discuss the economic value of nurse-led evidence-based practice (EBP) and quality improvement (QI) interventions for healthcare organizations. Participants will learn a practical, five-step method to quantify return on investment (ROI) and translate clinical and operational outcomes into financial terms. The session will also guide attendees in creating an ROI-based pitch tailored to finance leaders and executive boards to support sustaining and scaling successful nurse-led EBP/QI/Care innovation initiatives.

RS-WS6 Choose Your Route: Navigating the Crossroads of Evidence-Based Practice, Quality Improvement, and Research

Jenna Spencer, DNP, APRN, ACCNS-P, CPEN, Johns Hopkins Health System; Madeleine Whalen, MSN/MPH, RN, CEN, NPD-BC, Johns Hopkins Health System

S405b

Ever felt lost at the intersection of Evidence-Based Practice, Quality Improvement, and Research? Wondering which road to take? In this hands-on workshop, you'll become a confident navigator of the nursing inquiry highway, learning to recognize all the signposts and take your first roundtrip down Route EBP.

RESEARCH WORKSHOPS SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE

9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Morning Research Workshops | S403b, S405a, S405b

12:00 p.m. – 12:45 p.m.
Break

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Afternoon Research Workshops | S403b, S405a, S405b

4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Networking Happy Hour and Research Symposium Registration | Vista Ballroom Foyer S406

ANCC Contact Hours: 3 ANCC Contact Hours awarded per workshop; up to 6 ANCC Contact Hours awarded for attending two workshops.

NETWORKING HAPPY HOUR

Tuesday, October 27 | 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. | Vista Ballroom Foyer S406

All Research Workshop and Research Symposium attendees are welcome to join us for the Networking Happy Hour to close Day 1. Pick up your Research Symposium badge, hang your poster in S406b, and meet the Research Advisory Council and the planning team. Ask a nurse scientist your research question!

Using AI to Leverage Nursing Expertise: A Long and Winding Road

Kenrick D. Cato
PhD, RN, CPHIMS, FAAN, FACMI

Kenrick D. Cato is a Professor of Informatics at the University of Pennsylvania and a Nurse Scientist for Pediatric Data & Analytics at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Dr. Cato's research integrates machine learning, clinical decision support, and human-systems design to improve patient outcomes and clinician experience. Among his numerous research projects, he is particularly proud of the CONCERN Early Warning System, which he co-leads.

Dr. Cato has held several leadership positions within the American Medical Informatics Association (AMIA), including serving as a board member, conference co-chair, chair of the Nursing Informatics Working Group, and convening member of AMIA's 25x5 Task Force to Reduce Documentation Burden.

He is the recipient of AMIA's 2023 Leadership Award and a 2024 co-recipient of the Donald A.B. Lindberg Award for Innovation in Informatics.

Bridging Our Divide: The Nursing Profession's Role in the Elimination of Health Inequities

Vincent Guilamo-Ramos
PhD, MPH, LCSW, RN, ANP-BC, PMHNP-BC, FAAN

Vincent Guilamo-Ramos is Executive Director of the Institute for Policy Solutions and holds the Leona B. Carpenter Chair in Health Equity and Social Determinants of Health at the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing. He is Founding Director of the Center for Latino Adolescent and Family Health (CLAFH). Dr. Guilamo-Ramos is a nurse practitioner dually licensed in adult health (ANP-BC) and psychiatric-mental health nursing (PMHNP-BC).

Widely regarded as an expert, scholar, and leader in social determinants of health (SDOH) and in developing, evaluating, and translating family-based adolescent and young adult sexual and reproductive health interventions, Dr. Guilamo-Ramos' research has been funded externally for over two decades by the National Institutes of Health (NIH), the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), and other private and philanthropic organizations.

He is a leader in addressing the Latino HIV Cascading Disaster, with research focused on the role of families in promoting adolescent and young adult health among Latinos and other underserved communities, with a special focus on preventing HIV/AIDS, sexually transmitted infections, and improving care outcomes for youth receiving HIV prevention and care services.

Dr. Guilamo-Ramos has published extensively in leading scientific journals, including The New England Journal of Medicine, The British Medical Journal, The Lancet, The Lancet Infectious Diseases, The Lancet HIV, Clinical Infectious Diseases, JAMA Pediatrics, Pediatrics, and the American Journal of Public Health. His research and scholarship have been featured by CNN, The New York Times, NPR, and The Washington Post. In addition, he is a contributing writer for MedPage Today.

Dr. Guilamo-Ramos served as co-chair of the Presidential Advisory Council on HIV/AIDS (PACHA) and was a member of the ad hoc National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine (NASEM) Committee on Unequal Treatment Revisited: The Current State of Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Healthcare. He currently serves on the Board of UnidosUS, the nation's largest Latino civil rights and advocacy organization.

Lucy Leclerc, PhD, RN, NPD-BC, Emory Healthcare; Monique Bouvier, PhD, APRN, CPNP-PC, Emory Healthcare

RS01-C2 How Authentic Nurse Leadership Improves Patient Outcomes
Judith Moran, DNSc, RN, NE-BC, Mather Hospital-Northwell Health

RS01-C3 Building a Map to Success: The Creation of a Logic Model and Theory of Change for a Nursing Research Department
Rachael Haskell, LMSW-cc, MSW, BA, MaineHealth Maine Medical Center; Zoe Samson, PhD, RN, CDCES, MaineHealth Maine Medical Center

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
[RS02-A] Designing Safer Care | Track A | S405b

RS02-A1 Preventing Falls Through Presence: Nursing and Spiritual Care Collaboration to Use Motivational Interviewing for Falls Prevention
Angela Maeder, PhD, RNC-OB, Northwestern Medicine Academic Medical Center; Mark Bradley, DMin, BCC, Northwestern Memorial Hospital

RS02-A2 Improving ICU Infection Control Through Hand Hygiene and Antiseptic Innovation
Sagar Patel, MSN, FNP-BC, MS, BSN-RN, Suburban Medical & Wellness Center

RS02-A3 Elevating Age-Friendly Care: Exploring "What Matters" Through the Experiences of Hospitalized Older Adults and Clinical Nurses
Carissa Vanden Hogen, BSN, RNC-OB, CBC, Aurora West Allis Medical Center; Lauren Moy, MSN, RN, MEDSURG-BC, Aurora Summit Medical Center

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
[RS02-B] Nurse Well-Being and Retention | Track B | S405a

RS02-B1 From Burnout to Departure: Machine Learning Identifies Early Triggers and Protective Factors in Nurse Turnover
Nancy Blake, PhD, RN, NEA-BC, FACHE, FAONL, FAAN, Joe C Wen UCLA School of Nursing and Los Angeles General Medical Center; Xi Hu, PhD, Center for Labor & a Just Economy, Harvard Law School

RS02-B2 Retaining New Nurses Through Mentoring and Sense of Belonging
Shelli Chernesky, DNP, MBA, RN, CCRN, NE-BC, Baptist Health | Baptist Hospital of Miami; Diane Kramer, MSN-Ed, RN, Baptist Health | Baptist Hospital of Miami

RS02-B3 Nurse and Healthcare Worker Perspectives of Reigniting the Spirit of Caring Training: A Qualitative Study
Jonathan Trask, PhD, RN, CCRN, UC Davis Medical Center; Sarina Fazio, PhD, RN, UC Davis Health

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
[RS02-C] Professional Governance | Track C | S403b

RS02-C1 The Governance Transition: What Staff Are Telling Us
Liz Harms, DNP, RN, CMSRN, CNEcl, AdventHealth; Diedre Bricker, MSN, RN, NEA-BC, AdventHealth

RS02-C2 The Relationship Between Perceived Professional Governance and Council Health: the GOVRN Study
Catherine Ivory, PhD, NI-BC, NEA-BC, FAAN, Vanderbilt Health

RS02-C3 Shared Professional Governance: Synergistic Outcomes
Carolyn Newton, MSN, RN, NE-BC, Conway Regional Medical Center; Suzanne Harris, MS, BA, BSN, RN, NE-BC, Conway Regional Medical Center

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.
[RS03-A] Leveraging Nursing Expertise | Track A | S405b

RS03-A1 Not All Smart Pumps Are Created Equal: A Human-Factors Comparison of IV Smart Pump Usability
Brenda Nyarko, MSN, RN, The Elaine Marieb Center for Nursing and Engineering Innovation at the University of Massachusetts Amherst; Karen Giuliano, PhD, RN, FAAN, University of Massachusetts Amherst

RS03-A2 Engage, Educate, Connect: A Mixed-Methods Study Examining the Feasibility of Social Media–Driven Communication for Clinical Nursing Teams
Elyssa Wood, PhD, MPH, RN, FAEN, Inova Health System; Rebecca Babb, MSN, APRN, CPNP-AC, CPHON, Inova Health System

RS03-A3 HASTE! Nimble Nursing Work Group Unlocks Interpretation of Their Ischemic Stroke Care Pathway Study to Inform a Mechanical Thrombectomy Playbook
Gina Remington, MSN, RN, MSCN, HCA Healthcare

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.
[RS03-B] Workforce Sustainability and Innovation | Track B | S405a

RS03-B1 Nurse Manager Workload and Practice Environments Before and After the COVID-19 Pandemic: A Sequential Explanatory Mixed-Methods Study
Esther Chipps, PhD, RN, NEA-BC, FAONL, FAAN, The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center; Cheryl Monturo, PhD, MBE, ACNP-BC, Chester County Hospital

RS04-B3 Evaluating Nursing Workload Across Practice Settings Using Human Factors Ergonomics
Joanne Muyco, DNP, RN, NE-BC, NPD-BC, CNOR, Houston Methodist Hospital; Alexis Hayes, PhD, MSN-Ed, APRN, FNP-BC, NEA-BC, Houston Methodist Hospital

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.
